

2018 Sponsorship Request Letter

Rebuilding Day – October 6, 2018

Are you a [Re]Builder? Take a few minutes to read about Rebuilding Day then determine your participation level on this exciting and gratifying day.

Dear Northland Champion:

Because Rebuilding Together serves clients who face unsafe or unsustainable living conditions that threaten their safety, health, and well-being.

We have several high impact projects this year that will challenge our Rebuilding Day Volunteers as-well-as our financial means. Some of the problems we are hoping to solve include: rebar coming thru deteriorating concrete driveways; resolving roof and foundation leaks; floor and ceiling repairs for an immigrant family of six; weatherization and painting for several senior residents; installing shower walls where there are none for a man with disabilities; replacing several rotted window sills and re-attaching gutters for a veteran.

Because Rebuilding Day is focused on eliminating unsafe and deplorable living conditions for homeowners who do not have the financial or physical means to complete the repairs themselves.

On Rebuilding Day, close to 400 volunteers work together every year to complete essential home repairs and safety modifications for disadvantaged homeowners. Carefully coordinated volunteer crews come from a wide range of organizations including churches, schools, businesses, and civic organizations. These groups, along with individual families, lend their time and skills to help transform homes and support neighborhood revitalization on behalf of their less fortunate and vulnerable neighbors.

Will you consider supporting Rebuilding Day as a sponsor with a tax-deductible donation?

In exchange, you will receive positive community exposure - engaging more people, more effectively, for less money. Your company name or logo could be featured on 500 volunteer t-shirts, the Rebuilding Day web page, RTKC Facebook page, and in various mass media mentions reaching 2,600+ community stakeholders.

Last year, 386 volunteers completed Rebuilding Day projects on 25 homes. Overall, services in 2017 included 518 volunteers who invested 7,166 hours and completed crucial home repair projects on 117 homes for 207 residents (and 1 nonprofit facility with 94 residents). These home improvements were worth a market value of $239,582. For clients with an average annual household income of only $27,000, these repairs would have been economically unattainable.

Thank you in advance for considering our request and for supporting KC Northland residents and volunteers at Rebuilding Together Kansas City. These crucial projects are only made possible with generous sponsors helping us to fund them.

Sincerely,
